Please express your interest in serving:

I enjoy helping others and look forward to any opportunity to assist our community. If I may be of assistance to the Housing Authority, then I consider it a blessing because I have appreciated all the assistance, support and encouragement I have received these past couple of years.

Educational, vocational, personal experience and/or community participation which you feel will aid you in serving on this commission:

I do re-entry ministry work assisting those in need to find adequate employment, housing, support groups, churches, resources and any other needs they may have to ensure a successful transition to our community.
